(N)

A. Late Payment Charge

Amounts not paid within 30 days after the bill is due and payable will be considered past due. A late payment charge at the rate of 1.50% per month (unless a lower rate is prescribed by law, in which event at the highest rate allowed by law) may accrue upon any unpaid amount commencing five days after the date the payment is past due. When billing is provided by a local exchange company on behalf of the Company, the local exchange company's late payment charge applies to all past due amounts, if applicable.

B. Return Payment Charge

Payment of bills for service may be made by any means mutually acceptable to the customer and the Company. Payment which is not honored or paid by the customer's designated financial institution will be considered as nonpayment. A charge will apply whenever a payment for service on an active account is not accepted by the customer's designated financial institution.

CHARGE

- Returned Payment Charge, per occasion $10.00
 - Unless a lower fee has been prescribed by law in which event a charge equal to such lower fee

C. Interest on Deposits

The applicant or customer may be required to make a deposit to be held as a guarantee for the payment of charges for services furnished. When service is terminated, the amount of the deposit, with interests will be applied to any indebtedness to the Company. A deposit will be refunded or credited to the customer's account after 12 months if the customer has not been delinquent in payment. The deposit will bear simple interest in accordance with the rate determined by the Wyoming Public Utilities Commission. When billing is provided by a local exchange company on behalf of the Company, the local exchange company's deposit policy applies.
